Eggleston-Harris Win FRCC Tennis Tourney

Mitch Eggleston and Teresa Harris held on through two sets, each ending in tie-breakers to maintain their mixed doubles title at Falling River Country Club for the second year. The finals of this double elimination tournament played Sunday at 3 p.m. was suspense packed as Jackie Smith and Sam Kerr came from a 4-1 game deficit in each set to tie Eggleston and Harris at 6-6 and force them into 9-point tie-breakers. The first of these ending at 5-1; the second tie-breaker and determiner of the match was more closely played, ending at 5-3. After surviving four matches during the two weekend tournament, the young team still holds the Championship trophies. Smith-Kerr survived a closely played 4-6, 6-3, 6-3 decision over Sonny and Peggy Faries Sunday morning. This fourth match for the Faries' gave them third place in the tournament.

The Kerr-Smith played as many as three of their total six matches in one day, twice being extended to three sets, to gain the right to play for the title.

Though only 11 teams were involved in the tournament, the competition was stiff. Six sets ended in tie-breakers and four matches went three sets to determine a winner.

A junior tournament is being planned for June 25 for club members 15 and under. A sign-up sheet is currently posted at the club house for those interested.

The next adult tournament will be the ladies and men's doubles July 9 - 10. Everyone should be getting their partners to prepare for this fun event.

Thompsons Win First Twilight Tournament

Rick and Gail Thompson shot a 31 net to win the first twilight tournament at Falling River Country Club this year.

Played as a two-person Captain's Choice under the Calloway system, the tournament fielded twenty-one teams. Following the Thompsons in a three-way tie for second place, by only 1/2 stroke, were the teams of Hunter and Mary Tolley, Jerry and Jackie Robinson, and Jim and Judy Dorety. There was also a three-way tie, 1/2 stroke behind this group. Reed and Pat Johnson, Gene and Carol Hartzell, and John and Ginny Fedison all finished the 9-hole tournament with a net 32.

Though one of the coldest evenings recently, play was followed by homemade ice cream.

The next twilight tournament will be Friday, June 24th. Tee-off time will be 5:45 p.m. playing in a Scotch Tournament (alternating shots after the best tee-shot between a two-player team). It is not necessary to sign up in advance. Just show up with your partner before tee time.

HOMEMAKERS COUNCIL MEET

The Appomattox County Extension Homemakers Council met at the Extension office Tues., June 7 at 1:30 p.m., with Mrs. Isabelle Coleman, County Chairman, presiding. There were 11 members present.

Mrs. Ethel Evans presented a meditaiton and Joan Ranson read the minutes of the last meeting. It was reported that we have 28 members subscribing to the Homemaker Magazine. Appomattox County had two articles in the summer issue of this magazine.

The Quilt Committee reported that plans have been finalized and the booklets completed for "Ye Old Fashioned Quilting Party" to be held in the Appomattox High School cafeteria, June 11 and 12.

The Achievement Day Committee has set the date of Sept. 24, at the Appomattox Surrender Grounds for our fall Achievement Day program.

We have eight members who are planning to attend the Family Resources Conferences at VPI — SU, July 12-14. We were reminded that it has long been the policy of the County Extension Homemakers Clubs to pay the expenses of our County Chairman to this meeting each year. Individual clubs are responsible for sending their own members.

There will be a Resource Conference at Natural Bridge Nov. 1 - 3. It is suggested that each club make an effort to pay the expenses of its president, or an alternate, to this meeting.

The Year Book Committee hopes to have our year books ready in December. They welcome suggestions for the programs for 1978.
